ADVERTISEMENT Chief Executive Officer

Progressive affordable housing organization is searching for a Chief Executive Officer. Nestled up against the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains in the heart of South Carolina's Upcountry, Greenville is a city, and County where restoration and growth dovetail with Southern traditions, American history, and abundant natural attractions. Greenville County, a leader in education, health care, technology, light industry, and agriculture; is comprised of 795 square miles and has a population of 507,000.

Our organization is a leading affordable housing provider in the Southeast serving over 3,000 households with a staff of 58 employees and an annual operating budget of $28 million. A diverse real estate portfolio includes multiple Low-Income Housing Tax Credit, RAD and Mixed Finance properties.

The ideal CEO for this organization will be a strategic, collaborative, and innovative leader, able to plan, direct, manage and oversee all staff activities and strategic operations of the organization and its related affiliates. Excellent communication and interpretation skills are necessary to build positive business relationships, a team-oriented working environment, and ensure that Board adopted strategies and goals are met. Must also establish and maintain strong relationships with community stakeholders and local municipal leaders.

A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with course work in real estate development and finance or related field. Minimum of five years executive level leadership in a private or non-profit affordable housing development organization or property management company.
